

Visiting Assistant Professor of Theology. This is a one-year position, with the potential for renewal, beginning August, 2019. The Department of Theology at King's College seeks a candidate to teach courses in Systematic Theology and/or Biblical Studies. Candidates should possess a passion for teaching and helping students engage the relevance of theological concerns and conversations. Requirements include a Ph.D. in Theology and teaching experience at the college level (ABDs considered if all requirements for the doctorate will be completed by August 1). The Department of Theology is a Catholic, ecumenically-oriented department with a commitment to teaching in service to King's Core curriculum, the Honors Program, and a small group of majors and minors. The teaching load is 4/4. Successful candidates will support the Holy Cross Mission and Catholic identity of the College.

Send one *.pdf file containing a letter of application, CV, statement of teaching philosophy, undergraduate and graduate transcripts, and three letters of recommendation to hrjobs@kings.edu. To receive full consideration, complete applications must be received by April 30, 2019. Only complete applications will be reviewed.

King's College is a private, Catholic, teaching college of the liberal arts & sciences and pre-professional programs sponsored by the Congregation of Holy Cross. The College serves over 2400 FT & PT undergrad & graduate students. A rigorous core curriculum provides the foundation for all majors. The College is located near downtown Wilkes-Barre, on the edge of the Pocono Mountains. King's is committed to recruiting a diverse faculty and student body and welcomes applications from persons of traditionally under-represented groups. EOE
